

Lynx

Contributed by Administrator

Lynx (Lynx lynx)

Photo: Samuel Arnfjell

Photo: Samuel Arnfjell

Photo: Samuel Arnfjell

All wrights reserved
Samuel Arnfjell
Copyright information

Lynx (Lynx lynx)

Lynx has been in Sweden since the ice age. Today we have 1000-1500 hundred lynx in Sweden.

You can find Lynx in big parts of the northern hemisphere, divided in three subspecies. Spanish lynx (Spain, Portugal)
Canadian Lynx (North America)
European lynx (Europe and asia).

Characteristic:

The tail has a with black tip, the ears has white spots. You can also easily se white lines around the eye.

Besides that, the lynx have scent gland as a complement to the territorial urinateing

Food: A grown-up lynx can eat up to 1 kilo meat each day. The most common food source for lynx in Sweden is hare and roe deer.

Belong to: Order Predator (Carnivora) Family Cats (Felidae)

Weight: Between 20 - 35 kilo for the male and between 15 - 25 kilo for the female.

Age: Up to 20 year

Mating season: Mars

Lynx kitten: The kitten is born in May- June; often 2 - 3 kitten. They are blind at birth and weights about 0.3 kilo

Lynx 2004

This is the main area where you can find the wolverine in Sweden. The lynx footprint